Players Code of Conduct

Youth Sports play a vital role in encouraging physical, social and emotional growth of children. It is therefore essential for parents, coaches and officials to encourage participants to embrace the values of good sportsmanship, discipline and character development.

I pledge to...

- Have fun!
- Be a good sports (win or lose), be honest, fair and always show good sportsmanship to all coaches, players, officials and fans.
- Learn the value of commitment to the team.
- Put personal goals aside for the betterment of the team.
- Show courtesy and respect to teammates, opponents, coaches
- Realize that athletic contests, including practice sessions are educational experiences and opportunities
- Players will not engage in unsportsmanlike conduct
- Players will not engage in rude behavior
- I will treat everyone, including coaches, parents, players, officials, with respect regardless of race, creed, color, nationality, or gender.

I have read and will to the best of my ability abide by all of the above

Dear Parents, our programs thrive because of the time and effort put into the programs by the people that volunteer. You do not have to be a basketball genius to coach youth basketball. You just have to have a positive attitude and a desire to improve the quality of life of our children. Please consider coaching.

Parents Code of Conduct

Parents are vital to the development of young athletes. Whether sitting in the stands or helping out as a volunteer, parents must set a positive example. Parents, and adults involved in youth sports, should be models of good sportsmanship and lead by example on and off the playing field.

- Give constructive criticism during a private moment, never in front of other parents, players, officials, spectators, etc.
- Support your coach, and refrain from excessive “sideline coaching” from the stands.
- Refrain from using profanity.
- Abide by doctor’s decision in all matters of players health and injuries, and physical ability to play.
- Accept the decisions of officials on the field as being fair and called to the best ability of the officials. Parents must stay off the field and remain under control in order to set a good example for players and other spectators.
- Do not criticize an opposing team, its players, fans, coaches or team, by words or gestures.
- Support the coaches, players and officials and help teach the value of commitment to the teams, sportsmanship, ethical conduct, and fair play.
- Inappropriate behavior is cause for immediate ejection from the stands. Repeat offenses will result in being barred from future games and league sponsored activities.
- Parents will not encourage their child, or any other person, to engage in unsportsmanship conduct with any coach, parent, player, participants, officials or any other attendee.

The teams and game schedule will be handed out and posted on the WPR website, www.willistonparks.com no later than January 23/24. The program will run through February 25. If you have not received an email from me by Friday, January 13, stating “You are on my 2012 Boys Basketball email list” please send me an email and ask me to get you on your boy’s basketball mailing list.
